QUAIL RUN NEEDLEWORK - Monthly Highlights, Upcoming Events and Shop Details ♦ March 2015

Erin go braugh - 14x8" on 18 ct. $165.00

From Susan's Desk

A lovely friend introduced me to Sue Reed and her classes at an ANG seminar several years ago and I have been a fan of her designs ever since. No surprise that we are looking forward to her upcoming class "It's Not the Usual" (see page 2). If you can you should take Sue's class, or at least stop by while she is teaching and see the counted design in progress.

My staff and I all take classes to constantly improve our knowledge and skills to share with you. And we love learning from you so let's see anything new that you are doing on your canvases.

We have all been very busy stitching a variety of things - counted designs, painted canvas, beading and Japanese embroidery. On page 2 we've featured Johanna's projects this month with more to come.

Spring training is in full swing so I look forward to seeing you stitching baseball fans. You might be interested to know that the team with the most fans who visit the shop is the Cubs!

New to the valley? Then you'll enjoy meeting new friends at our "Stitch and Chat" between 1pm-4pm every Tuesday and Thursday. Drop by, grab a chair and visit! See you there.

What's Stitching?

Johanna, one of our store ladies, enjoys counted designs and she loves to stitch with silk, particularly Glorianna colors. Her pet needlework peeve is doing bullion knots.

She participated in the Echoes of Glass by Carolyn Mitchell class piece seen on the left and is also stitching the cute snowman canvas below as a store model.

Favorite Find

The staff pick this month is by Kari who chose this little sachet kit. It comes complete with the sachet, canvas, threads, stitch guide and lavender, so all you have to do is stitch and insert into the pre-finished sachet.

A quick gift idea, you will really enjoy working with the silk ribbon!

$58.00

Other flower and sachet colors available.

Take A Bow!

To celebrate President's Day, I finished my cactus flag and put it in one of our display windows. I am so pleased with the results.

Tip of the Month

Thanks to the talented Ruth Schmuff for this Little Jagged Stitch.

I use it when I want texture, for instance on pathways or roads. It is also great for hats, clothing, or baskets.

If you want your painted canvas to show, use 2-3 ply of your thread as I did here.
